

AHA Heartsaver First Aid Instructor Course

The American Heart Association's First Aid Instructor course is designed to prepare Healthcare Professionals (EMS, RN, LPN, MD, DO) to teach First Aid to lay people responding to emergencies.

Prerequisites:

- Current AMERICAN Heart Association BLS or Heartsaver Instructor status along with one of the following:
- Health Professional (EMS, RN, LPN, MD, DO, DDS)
- Certified Athletic Trainer
- Recognized Heartsaver FACTS Instructor or American Red Cross First Aid Instructor
- Completed AHA Heartsaver First Aid Provider Course, including the environmental section

Material Requirements:

- Heartsaver First Aid, CPR, AED textbook
- Heartsaver First Aid Instructor Manual
- CPR mask

Optional Material

- Heartsaver First Aid Instructor Resource Kit
- Heartsaver First Aid DVD

Course Information:

Date: April 29, 2005

Time: 6:00 pm

Place: Sherwood Middle School Sherwood Ave., Shrewsbury

Fees:

$35 / Course

$40 / for Instructor's manual and student text (Required) (includes tax's and shipping)

Total = $75.00

 See instructor for teaching materials specials

Registration: All fees must be received by April 22, 2005. Please make all checks payable to MECTA. Include on check: Name, address, telephone, email, and copy of CPR cards.

Questions: email lgosselin@mecta.com or call 508 865-9710