

Massachusetts Emergency Care Training Agency – MECTA, Inc.
Homework Assignment

Chapter 24 Soft Tissue Injuries, Lesson Review

- A. Name and describe the three types of soft-tissue injuries.
- B. What are the general characteristics of closed soft-tissue injuries?
- C. Describe the emergency care for closed soft-tissue injuries.

- D. Name and describe the four types of open soft-tissue injuries.
- E. What is a significant concern for penetrating injuries?
- F. Describe the emergency care for open soft-tissue injuries.

- G. Describe the characteristics of an open chest wound and how you would treat the patient.
- H. What type of covering is used for an open abdominal wound with organs protruding? Why?
 - I. What are the five factors in determining burn severity?
- J. Name and describe the three degrees of burn depth.
- K. Describe the Rule of Nines. How does it apply to a child?
- L. What are concerns for caring for children with burns?
- M. What is the basic emergency care for burns?
- N. Describe the general concerns and care for patients with chemical burns?
- O. What are two major concerns regarding incidents involving electricity?
- P. Describe the three major functions of dressing and bandages.