

Chapter 25 - Eye Injuries Lesson Review

- A. Describe the normal anatomic and physiologic status of the eye.
- B. Describe the process of removing a foreign object from the eyes.
- C. Describe the emergency care for an impaled object in the eye.
- D. Describe the treatment for chemical burns to the eye.
- E. Describe a blowout fracture and its signs and symptoms.
- F. What characteristics might the eyes display that indicate a possible a head injury?
- G. Describe the EMT-B's concerns and approach to patients with contact lenses.
- H. What is the best approach if you believe a patient may have an artificial eye?

Chapter 26 - Face & Throat Lesson Review

- A. What is a major concern related to injuries of the face and throat?
 - B. Describe the emergency care for soft-tissue injuries of the face and throat.
 - C. How can you tell if CSF is present in bleeding from the nose?
 - D. Describe bleeding control for an ear injury.
 - E. List some clues that might indicate a facial fracture.
 - F. Describe subcutaneous emphysema.
 - G. To control bleeding from a neck wound, where should you apply pressure?
-

Chapter 27 - Chest Injuries Lesson Review

- A. What are the two types of chest injuries and their general signs and symptoms?
 - B. Describe a pneumothorax and care for an open injury.
 - C. What are the causes and signs and symptoms of a tension pneumothorax?
 - D. Describe a flail chest and the emergency care for this injury.
 - E. What is traumatic asphyxia and how does it look?
 - F. Describe the signs and symptoms of a pericardial tamponade.
-